

THE MOST EXCEPTIONAL SILK SALE

Ever Attempted by this Store.

Exceptional, first because of the very low prices—secondly, because every piece is NEW, more than nine hundred yards having just been received from New York.

"Fashion predicts two of the biggest seasons for colors in years just ahead of us."

In view of the above predictions a sale of Colored Silks at this time becomes doubly interesting.

400 Yards of All Silk Tussah Silk - 42c Yard

Never could have been retailed for less than 59c to 65c per yard. New Spring patterns, in a splendid combination of colorings, 18 1-2 inches wide.

500 Yards of All Silk Novelty Silks, 53 1-2c Yard

Every piece is pretty—yet every one is different from the other. None of them could be sold for less than 75c per yard and we have seen Silks at twice this price not one bit prettier. 53 1-2c per yard don't begin to represent the quality.

This sale will run a certain length of time and then if there is any left the prices will have to be considerably more. So don't delay.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society will meet with Mrs. Betsy Benedict at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon. Tea will be served at the close of the study hour.

Wm. Wells W. R. C. met Saturday afternoon in I. O. O. F. hall for the regular meeting with a good attendance. The interest is well sustained and the corps is planning good work for the year.

The Brookfield Dramatic Co. will present the "Country Minister" at the town hall, Tuesday evening. This company is composed of members of Brookfield grange. Having been here before and given such fine entertainments they are sure of a good house, weather permitting.

The East Hill Birthday club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Hyland Saturday evening. An oyster supper was served to a large company. The annual election of officers took place with Mrs. Fred A. Flint, president; Miss Lena Seaver, vice-president; P. G. Sanders, chaplain; Mrs. A. F. Whitcomb, secretary; H. S. Drury, treasurer; business committee, George W. Holden, Mrs. H. S. Drury, A. E. Whitcomb.

Other Fish to Fry.

"Ma'am, here's a man at the door with a parcel for you."
"What is it, Bridget?"
"It's a fish, ma'am, and it's marked O. D."
"Then make the man take it straight back to the dealer. I ordered trout."—Baltimore American.

Just to Remind Them.

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Persons, to the number of fifteen, all of South Barre, and Mr. and Mrs. Southgate of Barre, Mr. Southgate being a brother to Mrs. Persons, met at their home in Barre, the afternoon and evening of December 31, to remind them that it was the 35th anniversary of their marriage. A happy time was spent socially and with selections from the phonograph. Refreshments of sandwiches, coffee, cake, ice cream and fruit were served. It was a great surprise for Mr. and Mrs. Persons. The company presented them a handsome fur robe. When the party broken up, all wished Mr. and Mrs. Persons many more happy wedding anniversaries.

The program at the Theatorium today is of the very best. "Restored by Repentance," a dramatic picture of the first order, one of those that holds the audience from start to finish. The comedy pictures are all screams, one continued laugh from start to finish.

"The Duke's Motto" at the Comique today is a very beautiful drama. The scenery, costuming and acting are of the best. The plot is of unusual interest, one of those pictures with something doing all the time. Another picture, called "The Reckoning," is a true to life story. A surly, cross husband whom the wife does not love, starts for work; the true lover appears; no work at the shop, the husband at the saloon, he returns home, catches his wife in her lover's arms, then comes the tragic reckoning, of which we so often read.

Stated convocation, Granite Chapter, No. 26, R. A. M., Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. Per order E. H. P.

There will be a meeting of Vinitia lodge, No. 10, K. of P., Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Work, rank of page and esquire.
